

No. 11.

UNDER SECRETARY TO MR. EATON.

Colonial Secretary's Office,

Auckland 12th November 1864.

SIR,—

I am directed by Mr. Fox to sanction the temporary employment of yourself, for the purpose of assisting this department in the necessary arrangements in connection with the emigrants who have arrived in Auckland, and are shortly expected to arrive, at the instance of the General Government.

The remuneration which you are authorised to receive, will be at the rate of twelve shillings per diem with rations commencing from the day on which you entered upon these duties. It must however, be distinctly understood, that your employment is quite of a temporary nature, and that it will cease immediately on notice being given to you to that effect.

You will be good enough to take care not to incur any expenses without obtaining previously a written authority from the Colonial Secretary for such expenses, and this instruction will equally apply to expenses which are defrayed out of sums advanced to you as to those payable out of other funds.

It is also essential that tenders should be publicly called at once, for supplying rations to the emigrants and for any other services, on account of which, any considerable expense is being incurred. You will be good enough to furnish me as soon as possible with a draft of notice calling for such tenders.

I have &amp;c.,

F. G. Eaton Esq.,
North Shore.

W. GISBORNE,
Under Secretary.
