Enclosure 4 to No. 1.

REGULATIONS for the DIOCESAN and DAY SCHOOLS of the Diocese of Auckland.

Article 1st. Length of time for the school:—

(1.) The daily time for the school is three hours in the morning, and three hours, or at least two hours and a half in the afternoon.

(2.) The weekly time of the schools is every day from Monday up to the noon, inclusive of Saturdays.

(3.) The annual time for the schools is as follows:—

There are two vacations during the year, the first from the Wednesday at noon of Holy Week to the Tuesday after Easter.

The second vacation begins on the afternoon of the eve of Christmas, and lasts about two weeks.

Article 2nd. The Method of Teaching:—

When the pupils are not too numerous, the teaching of them by individuals is recommended; when they are very numerous, the monitorial teaching must be employed.

Article 3rd. Matters to be taught in the Elementary Schools:—

Catechism to the Catholic pupils; reading, writing, spelling, grammar, arithmetic, geography, history, and if possible the elements of geometry. As for the female pupils, several other acquirements may be taught them, according to the capacity of the teachers and the resources of the parents, who shall have to pay additional contributions for these requirements.

Article 4th. The Retributions of the Pupils:—

The retributions of the pupils to be paid to the schoolmaster are fixed according to the moderate estimation of the place where the school is established, and according to the approbation of the local
