GRANT for a FEMALE SCHOOL at WELLINGTON.

Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and so forth: To all to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

WHEREAS a School is about to be established at Wellington, in the Province of New Munster, New Zealand, under the superintendence of the head of the Roman Catholic Church at Wellington, and his successors, for the education of the female children of our subjects of all races, and of the female children of other poor and destitute persons, being inhabitants of islands in the Pacific Ocean: And whereas it would promote the objects of the said institution to set apart a certain piece or parcel of land in the neighbourhood thereof for the use and toward the maintenance and support of the same: Now know ye, that we, for us, our heirs and successors, do hereby grant unto the Roman Catholic Bishop for the time being of the district in which Wellington is situated, or the person for the time being discharging the duty of the said office, all that piece or parcel of land, containing one acre, more or less, situate and being in the Town of Wellington, in the Province of New Munster, and being Town Acre number five hundred and fifty-nine (559), in the plan of the Town of Wellington, and bounded on the north by Hawkestone Street, on the south by Town Acre number five hundred and fifty-eight (558), on the east by Town Acre number five hundred and sixty-one (561), and on the west by Town Acre number five hundred and fifty-seven (557), as the same is more particularly delineated and described on the margin hereof, together with the rents, issues, and proceeds thereof, to hold unto the said Roman Catholic Bishop for the time being of the district in which Wellington is situated, and his successors, in trust nevertheless and for the use and towards the maintenance of the said school, so long as the religious education, industrial training, and instruction in the English language, shall be given to the females educated therein or maintained thereat.

In testimony whereof we have caused this our grant to be sealed with the seal of our said Province of New Munster.

Witness our trusty and well beloved Sir George Grey, K.C.B., Governor of the Province of New Munster, at Wellington, this twenty-first day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

GRANT for a MISSION STATION at OTAKI.

Victoria, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and so forth: To all to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

WHEREAS a Mission Station has been established at Otaki, in the Province of New Munster, New Zealand, under the superintendence of the Church Missionary Society, and the Native chiefs have given a portion of land for the support thereof: And whereas it would promote the benevolent objects of the Church Missionary Society to set apart the said piece or parcel of land in the neighbourhood of the Town of Hadfield, at Otaki, for the use and towards the maintenance and support of the said mission station: Now know ye, that we, for us, our heirs and successors, do hereby grant unto the Venerable William Williams, Archdeacon of Waiapu, the Venerable Octavius Hadfield, Archdeacon of Kapiti, and the Reverend Richard Taylor, of Wanganui, in trust for the said Church Missionary Society, or in the event of the death or absence of any of the abovenamed trustees, then to such other trustees as may be by the Church Missionary Society appointed for that purpose, all that piece or parcel of land situate and being in the neighbourhood of the Town of Hadfield, at Otaki, in the Province of New Munster, the boundary of which commences from the junction of the north side of Kihoroa Street with the west side of Te Rauparaha Street, Town of Hadfield, Otaki, and extends along the west side of the latter street sixteen hundred and eighty-five (1685) links, turning west (magnetic) for four hundred and thirty (430) links it meets the fencing by which it runs in a westerly course a distance of one thousand and fifty-five (1055) links, from thence by a line bearing north-west (magnetic) sixty-five (65) degrees it extends two hundred and seventy (270) links, and turning in a bearing south-east eleven and a half ( $11\frac{1}{2}$ ) degrees magnetic for fourteen hundred and seventy (1470) links it meets the continuation of the north side of Kiharoa Street, by which it runs a distance of sixteen hundred and eighty-two (1682) links to the starting point, the contents being twenty-four acres one rood and sixteen perches (24 acres 1 rood and 16 perches) or thereabouts, and the boundaries being more particularly delineated in the plan drawn in the margin of these presents, together with the rents, issues, and proceeds thereof; to hold unto the said William Williams, Octavius Hadfield, and Richard Taylor, or their successors, as appointed by the said Church Missionary Society, in trust nevertheless and for the use and towards the maintenance of the said mission station, or for the promotion of the missionary and religious objects of the said Church Missionary Society.

In testimony whereof we have caused this our grant to be sealed with the seal of our said Province of New Munster.

Witness our trusty and well beloved Sir George Grey, a Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor-in-Chief in and over the Islands of New Zealand, and Governor of New Munster, at Government House, Wellington, this twenty-first day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.
