GRANT for a MISSION STATION at WANGANUI.

Victoria, by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and so forth: To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

WHEREAS a Mission Station has been established at Wanganui, in the Province of New Munster, New Zealand, under the superintendence of the Church Missionary Society, and the Native chiefs have given a portion of land for the support thereof: And whereas it would promote the benevolent objects of the said Church Missionary Society to set apart the said piece or parcel of land in the neighbourhood of the Town of Putikiwaranui, at Wanganui, for the use and towards the maintenance and support of the said mission station: Now know ye, that we, for us, our heirs and successors, do hereby grant unto the Venerable William Williams, Archdeacon of Whaiapu, the Venerable Octavius Hadfield, Archdeacon of Kapiti, and the Reverend Richard Taylor, of Wanganui, in trust for the said Church Missionary Society, or in the event of the death or absence of any of the above-named trustees, then to such other trustees as may be by the Church Missionary Society appointed for that purpose, all that piece or parcel of land situate and being in the neighbourhood of the Town of Putikiwaranui, at Wanganui, in the Province of New Munster, the boundary of which commences at the point marked A at the junction of the Nga ta rua (which flows from the north-east towards the south-west, with a smaller stream of the same name flowing from the eastward, in the Town of Putikiwaranui, and between Church and Richmond Streets, in which direction along the latter stream it runs for four hundred and sixty (460) links, when it turns towards the north and east for fifty (50) and two hundred and eighty (280) links, turning southward it extends fifty-five (55) links to its junction with the Nga ta rua (the smaller stream as described on plan), along which it runs in a north-easterly course (690) six hundred and ninety links, turning eastward it extends one hundred and eighty-two (182) links, when it takes a direction southward along the road from Wanganui to Kaitohe for one thousand and seventy-five (1075) links, from this point the boundary runs in a north-westerly course within fifteen (15) links of the South end of the schoolhouse, a distance of one thousand six hundred and eighty-five (1685) links of the Nga ta rua (the larger stream), the centre of which forms the boundary for five hundred and fifteen (515) links to the starting point A, and the boundaries being more particularly delineated in the plan drawn in the margin of these presents, together with the rents, issues, and proceeds thereof; to hold unto the said William Williams, Octavius Hadfield, and Richard Taylor, or their successors, as appointed by the said Church Missionary Society, in trust nevertheless and for the use and toward the maintenance of the said mission station, or for the promotion of the missionary and religious objects of the said Church Missionary Society.

In testimony whereof we have caused this our grant to be sealed with the seal of our said Province of New Munster.

Witness our trusty and well-beloved Sir George Grey, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander in Chief of our said territory and its Dependencies, and Governor of our Province of New Munster, at Wellington, in New Zealand aforesaid, this twenty-eighth day of May, in the fifteenth year of our reign, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

(L.S.)

G. GREY.

Entered on record this twenty-ninth day of May, 1852, Register I, folio 39.
