GRANT for CATHOLIC INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL at WELLINGTON.

Victoria, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and so forth: To all to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

WHEREAS a School has been established at Wellington, for the education of girls of the Native and other races, under the superintendence of the Roman Catholic Mission: And whereas it would promote the benevolent objects of the said institution to set apart a certain piece or parcel of land towards the maintenance and support of the same: Now know ye, that we, for us, our heirs and successors, do hereby grant unto the Right Reverend Phillip Joseph Viard, Roman Catholic Bishop at Wellington, and to his successors in such office, all that piece or parcel of land situated in the Town of Wellington, in the Province of Wellington, in the Islands of New Zealand, containing twenty-two and a quarter ( $22\frac{1}{4}$ ) perches more or less, bounded towards the north by other part of the same section two hundred and thirty-six (236) links, towards the east by Lambton Quay sixty-six (66) links, towards the south by other part of the same section one hundred and fifty (150) links, and one hundred and six (106) links respectively, and towards the west by Wellington Terrace fifty-four (54) links, the said boundaries being more particularly delineated on the plan drawn in the margin of these presents, together with the rents, issues, and proceeds thereof, to hold unto the said Phillip Joseph Viard, and to his successors Roman Catholic Bishops at Wellington, in trust nevertheless and for the use and towards the maintenance and support of the said school, so long as religious education, industrial training, and instruction in the English language shall be given to the youth educated therein or maintained thereat.

In testimony whereof we have caused this our grant to be sealed with the seal of our said territory.

Witness our trusty and well-beloved Sir George Grey, a Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the said Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, at Wellington, in New Zealand aforesaid, this fifth day of October, in the seventeenth year of our reign, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

(L.S.)

G. GREY.

Entered on record this fifth day of October, 1853, in Register I., folio 93.
