GRANT for COLLEGE or SCHOOL or SCHOOLS at WELLINGTON.

Victoria, by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and so forth: To all to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

WHEREAS the allotment or parcels of land herein after particularly described and intended to be hereby granted and conveyed have been marked out and distinguished on the charts of the New Zealand Islands as College and Grammar School, lands reserved as an endowment for or towards the maintenance and support of a College or Grammar School or Schools in the Province of Wellington, if the funds suffice, or otherwise as an endowment for or towards the maintenance and support of such Grammar school or schools alone which college or schools are to be conducted always on the following principles: First, in addition to the usual course of education in the English language and mathematics, and in such other branches of learning as the trustees for the time being may direct, all students attending such college or school shall if they desire it receive instruction in the Greek and Latin languages. Second, any Grammar Schools to be maintained or supported from this endowment upon all school days not being half holidays, shall so soon as the necessary funds can be procured to defray the extra expenses consequent upon such an arrangement be kept open for the purposes of instruction for such two hours in the evening between the hours of six o'clock p.m. and ten o'clock p.m., as the trustees for the time being may direct. Third, persons of all classes or races who may inhabit this colony are to be equally admitted to such college or schools. Fourth, such proportions of the students or scholars in the college or schools maintained or supported under this endowment shall be free scholars, as the trustees for the time being may deem compatible with the state of the funds of the trust: And whereas for the better management of the said College or Grammar School, reserved funds for the training of rules and regulations for the management of the college or schools to be maintained or supported under this endowment, for the appointment of a visitor or visitors, for the appointment or removal if they deem it requisite of a master or masters and other officers, and for other like purposes it is expedient, that the same be vested in trustees to be appointed and empowered in manner hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, First, one trustee shall be appointed by the Governor of New Zealand, one by the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, one by the members of the Executive Council of New Zealand, one by the Speaker of the Provincial Council of the said Province of Wellington, and one by the Mayor of any future Corporation of Wellington, whenever such Corporation shall be established, and in the meantime by the Superintendent of the Province of Wellington, all such appointments to be made by the said officers or other persons lawfully acting in the same capacity and their successors in the offices aforesaid respectively. Second, the term of office of such trustee shall be ten years from the date of appointment of such trustee respectively. Third, such trustees shall in all cases be eligible for reappointment upon the expiration of their respective terms of office. Fourth, in the event of any vacancy occurring in the office of any trustees from death, absence, incapacity, resignation, or refusal to act, such vacancy shall be filled up by the person
