

REGULATIONS

UNDER "THE DEEDS REGISTRATION AMENDMENT ACT, 1863."

General Land Registry Office, Wellington, 15th February, 1867.

By virtue of the powers vested in me by "The Deeds Registration Amendment Act, 1863," I do hereby order, that on and after the first day of April next, the Register of Deeds Offices within the several Provinces of New Zealand, shall be open to the public daily (Sundays, Saturdays, and public holidays excepted), from Ten (10) o'clock a.m. to Four (4) o'clock p.m., and on Saturdays from Ten (10) o'clock a.m. to Two (2) o'clock p.m. But no Deeds shall be received for registration after the hours of Two (2) o'clock p.m. on Saturdays, and Three (3) o'clock p.m. on other office days.

All former Regulations relating to office hours are hereby rescinded.

ALFRED DOMETT,
Registrar-General of Land.

Approved in Council, twenty-seventh February, 1867.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

By virtue of the powers in me vested by "The Deeds Registration Amendment Act, 1863," I hereby make the following Regulations for the practice and procedure of the several Register of Deeds Offices throughout the Colony, to take effect on and after the first day of January, 1867.

1. Where any will has been registered, and it shall afterwards appear that such will relates to other lands in addition to those delineated upon or annexed thereto, a plan of such other lands, accompanied by a statutory declaration of some person competent to declare to the facts, may be registered in the Register of Deeds where such will has been registered, whereupon the Registrar shall make the appropriate entries in the index or title books relating to such lands, and shall cause such plan and declaration to be recorded; and upon the recorded copy of the will, so registered as aforesaid, shall make a memorandum referring to the page or folio of the record book where such plan and declaration shall be recorded, and such other entries or references as he may deem necessary or convenient. The aforesaid declaration shall refer by Registrar's number and date to the registered will, and shall state that, to the best of declarant's knowledge and belief, the lands described and delineated in the plan accompanying such declaration, are affected by the aforesaid registered will.

2. The word "will" in the foregoing regulation shall include the authenticated copy of any will registered under the fifth section of "The Registration of Deeds Amendment Act, 1860."

3. Whenever an indorsement has been or shall be made on a Crown Grant, after the same shall have been registered, certifying the day of the payment of the purchase money for the land comprised in such grant, or the date at which the grantee became entitled to a grant of such land, or describing more correctly the boundaries thereof, such indorsement may be registered by a copy thereof being indorsed on the recorded copy in the Register of Deeds wherein the grant may have been registered.

4. Every instrument in the Maori language presented for registration, shall be accompanied by a translation into English of the same, the correctness of which shall be certified by some Government Interpreter, or other officer of Government, to the satisfaction of the Registrar of Deeds, and the translation shall be registered as forming part of the original deed.
