

CORRESPONDENCE

RELATIVE TO ARBITRATION COURTS.

PRESENTED TO BOTH HOUSES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, BY COMMAND OF HIS EXCELLENCY.

WELLINGTON.

1867.

CORRESPONDENCE RELATIVE TO ARBITRATION COURTS.

No. 1.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. W. GISBORNE to Mr. JOHN MORRISON.

SIR,—

Colonial Secretary's Office, Wellington, 5th February, 1867.

I am directed to enclose a copy of a Report of a Select Committee of the House of Representatives, last Session, as to the best means of giving practical effect to the proposed establishment of Courts of Arbitration in the Colony of New Zealand.

The Government is desirous of being placed, as soon as practicable, in possession of full information on the subject of Courts of this kind in other countries, and of their practical operation; and I am to request you to be good enough to procure and forward to this office any printed documents or books which will explain the constitution of these Courts, their mode of working, and their practical results.

If you apply at the several Consulates in London of countries in which such or similar Courts have been established, you will no doubt be furnished with such information as will enable you to select the latest and most authentic publications of the kind required.

J. Morrison, Esq.,
3, Adelaide Place, King William Street, London.

I have, &c.,
W. GISBORNE,
Under Secretary.

No. 2.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. JOHN MORRISON to the Hon. E. W. STAFFORD.

Office of the New Zealand Government Agency,
3, Adelaide Place, King William Street,
London (E.C.), 26th April, 1867.

SIR,—

Referring to your letter of the number and date as stated in the margin, wherein you direct me to procure and forward to you any printed documents or books which explain the constitution, the mode of working, and the practical results of Courts of Arbitration in other countries, I do myself the honor to inform you that letters were addressed to the Consuls, residing in London, of France, Austria, Prussia, United States of America, Belgium, and the Hanseatic Republics, and herewith I beg leave to transmit copies of the replies received, and to state that further proceedings are being instituted to obtain the information required.

58.
February 5, 1867.

The Hon. the Colonial Secretary,
Wellington, New Zealand.

I have, &c.,
JOHN MORRISON.

Enclosure 1 in No. 2.

Copy of a Letter from the PRUSSIAN CONSUL-GENERAL to Mr. JOHN MORRISON.

Royal Prussian General Consulate, London,
106, Fenchurch Street (E.C.), 5th April, 1867.

SIR,—

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of yesterday's date, relative to Courts of Arbitration, or their equivalent, in the Kingdom of Prussia, and, in reply, I beg leave to suggest that you should make an application for the information you require either through Her Majesty's Foreign Office, Whitehall, or direct to the British Embassy, at Berlin.

I have, &c.,
H. B. HEBELER,
Consul-General.

John Morrison, Esq.

Enclosure 2 in No. 2.

Copy of a Letter from the BELGIAN CONSUL to Mr. JOHN MORRISON.

SIR,—

In reply to your letter of the 4th instant, about the establishment of Courts of Arbitration in New Zealand, I hasten to inform you that in Belgium there are no such Courts.

John Morrison, Esq.

I have, &c.,
DELEPIERRE.

Enclosure 3 in No. 2.

Copy of a Letter from the MINISTER RESIDENT of the HANSE TOWNS to Mr. JOHN MORRISON.

Hanseatic Legation, 60, Eaton Square (S.W.),
London, 11th April, 1867.

SIR,—

In reply to your favor of the 4th instant, which has been handed over to me by Mr. Consul-General Wulff, I have the honor to inform you that no Courts of Arbitration exist in the Hanse Towns.

I am, &c.,

GEFFEKEN,

John Morrison, Esq.

Minister Resident of the Hanse Towns.

Enclosure 4 in No. 2.

Copy of a Letter from the FRENCH CONSUL-GENERAL to Mr. JOHN MORRISON.

Consulat-Général de France en Angleterre,
Londres, le 12 Avril, 1867.

MONSIEUR,—

J'ai reçu la lettre que vous m'avez fait l'honneur de m'écrire le 6 de ce mois, et par laquelle vous exprimez le désir de savoir à qui il faudrait s'adresser pour obtenir des informations sur le fonctionnement, &c., des Cours d'Arbitrage en France.

Ces institutions étant placées sous la direction du Ministère de l'Agriculture, du Commerce, et des Travaux Publics à Paris, je ne puis que vous engager à écrire directement à Monsieur de Foreade, et je ne doute pas que S. Ex. ne vous fournisse tous les renseignements que vous pourriez désirer sur la matière.

Agreez, &c.,

Le Consul-General

Monsieur John Morrison.

FLEURY.

Enclosure 5 in No. 2.

Copy of a Letter from the AUSTRIAN CONSUL to Mr. JOHN MORRISON.

29, St. Swithin's Lane (E.C.), 18th April, 1867.

SIR,—

In reply to your note dated 4th instant, I am sorry to say that this Consulate-General does not possess any printed documents or books (in English language) respecting Austrian Courts of Arbitration.

Such documents or books could only be procured to you from Vienna, but in German language.

There is here an Austrian lawyer, Dr. Zimmermann, of whom I beg to enclose the address, and by whom, I suppose, you could get the best information about this matter.

I am, &c.,

C. O. NAMNAMY.

John Morrison, Esq.
