Sir G. GREY to the Hon. the COLONIAL SECRETARY.

(Telegram.)

Auckland, 14th June, 1875.

I have had shown to me a telegram from Mr. Mackay to the owners of the timber lease of the Tairua block, to the effect that he did not consider them entitled to the lease for forty years of the whole area, but that the lease of parts of it should be resigned. Might Mr. Mackay be requested to supply me at once with a copy of this telegram?

G. GREY.

(Telegram.)

Auckland, 15th June, 1875.

The following statement has been made in a letter from Mr. W. A. Graham, agent of the Tairua prospectors: it appears to require explanation, which I request I may be furnished with:—"With reference to inquiry how Crippen got his share, the facts are: The prospectors requested me to offer a share in the claim to Mr. Mackay. I did so, and he refused to accept it, giving his reason it would perhaps be made use of against him in his official capacity. I asked if he would like to give it to O'Halloran or any one else, as a share was at his disposal. The prospectors wished to make up their party to ten men. Mr. Mackay said O'Halloran could not receive a share, for the same reason that he could not, being a Government officer; but if I liked I might give it to Crippen, who was a private individual, and the only person he could think of at the time to give a share to. I said it mattered not to prospectors who got the share; accordingly Crippen got the share, and thus became one of the party."
