SCHEDULE III.

AN ACT to amend "The Friendly Societies Act, 1877." [29th October, 1878.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Friendly Societies Act Amendment Act, 1878."

2. So much of subsection three of section twelve of "The Friendly Societies Act, 1877" (herein referred to as "the said Act"), as requires that amendments of rules shall be published in the Gazette, is hereby repealed.

3. In subsection one of section twelve of the said Act the words "and so far as they are applicable to the constitution of such society" shall be inserted between the word "registered" and the word "contain;" in subsection two of the same section there shall be inserted between the word "management" and the word "and" the words "medical and surgical expenses, including medicine and medical and surgical requisites;" and the said Act shall be read and construed accordingly.

4. Section thirteen, subsection one, of the said Act shall be read as if after the word "appointed" at the end of sub-head (d) there were inserted the words "also a list of the members of the society, together with the age of each, and the periods of sickness, deaths, and other contingencies in respect of which benefits are given by the society, experienced by the society during the year ending as aforesaid, specifying the members in respect of whom such sickness, deaths, or contingencies have been experienced, and such other information as the Registrar may from time to time prescribe. The Registrar may dispense with the quinquennial return from any society furnishing the required information annually."

5. Sub-head (f) of subsection one of section thirteen of the said Act is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof it is enacted that—
