

The company shall pay to the District Railway Manager, upon the expiration of each four-weekly accounting period observed on the New Zealand railways, within three days of demand in writing from the District Railway Manager, all charges made in accordance with the terms of this agreement, together with the terminal charges on account of passengers and parcels.

If any of the company's servants at any time neglect or refuse to observe the orders of the Government officers, the District Manager may, without further process, exclude such servant from entering the Government premises.

Should the company neglect or refuse to fulfil any of the conditions hereinbefore stipulated, the Minister may, without further process, cease to permit the company's trains to enter or leave the Government railway premises, and the company shall have no claim for compensation or damages on account of such stoppage, or on account of any action arising therefrom.
