MY LORD,—

Government House, Wellington, 17th July, 1886.

I have the honour to forward herewith a memorandum from my Ministers covering a letter from Mr. W. Seed, the permanent head of the Customs and Marine Department of this colony, requesting that a nomination may be granted to his son for the position of engineer student in Her Majesty's naval service, with the view to his becoming an officer of the Engineer Department in the Royal navy. Mr. Seed, I should state, is a gentleman much trusted and highly respected in the responsible position which he occupies, and has been in the public service for the last forty years.
