WELLINGTON COLLEGE AND GIRLS' HIGH SCHOOL.

1. MEMORANDUM FOR THE MINISTER OF EDUCATION.

In the report presented to the Minister of Education in February, 1891, the Governors went fully into the position of the College and Girls' High School. They would now only repeat that the burden of interest on moneys borrowed for buildings still presses heavily upon their resources. With a view to place the College on a more satisfactory footing financially, they have made certain changes in the staff which result in an annual saving of £580. They regret to find that the Act passed last session to amend the Municipal Corporations Act did not, as they were led to believe it would, relieve them from payment of rates on their buildings, and they trust that Government will legislate next session to this end. This would relieve the Governors of an annual charge of £187 10s., which they certainly think they should not be called upon to pay.

The College and Girls' High School continue to do good work. Of the boys attending the College last year one gained a junior University scholarship, two passed that examination (one with credit), and five passed the matriculation examination. Of the girls, two passed the junior scholarship examination (one with credit), and eleven passed the matriculation examination.

Last year the numbers attending the College were 95; this year opened with a roll of 106 pupils. The Girls' High School maintains its numbers, 143 being now on the roll.
