NOTE.—The debt includes the whole of the £1,000,000 Imperial guaranteed debentures, but does not include deficiency or Treasury bills created in anticipation of revenue. The outstanding debt and the sinking funds accrued on the Consolidated Loan, 1867, which had been stated in different ways in various years, have now been treated uniformly. The debt and sinking funds accrued throughout the periods have been set down to accord with the plan adopted within the last three years.
