

[illegible]

DECLASSIFICATION AUTHORITY DERIVED FROM:

[illegible]

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 3, 1862. It is a message of condolence to the people of the State of California, who have been afflicted by a severe drought and famine. The President expresses his sympathy for the suffering people and offers them his best wishes for a speedy recovery.

2. The second part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Interior, dated January 3, 1862. It contains information about the land and water resources of the State of California, and the progress of the surveying and mapping of the public lands. The report also mentions the discovery of gold in the State, and the measures taken to regulate the mining industry.

3. The third part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Treasury, dated January 3, 1862. It contains information about the financial condition of the State of California, and the progress of the collection of taxes and duties. The report also mentions the issue of the State's debt, and the measures taken to reduce it.

4. The fourth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the War, dated January 3, 1862. It contains information about the military forces of the State of California, and the progress of the training and discipline of the troops. The report also mentions the issue of the State's armaments, and the measures taken to improve them.

5. The fifth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Navy, dated January 3, 1862. It contains information about the naval forces of the State of California, and the progress of the construction and maintenance of the ships. The report also mentions the issue of the State's naval stores, and the measures taken to increase them.

6. The sixth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Education, dated January 3, 1862. It contains information about the educational institutions of the State of California, and the progress of the teaching and learning. The report also mentions the issue of the State's educational funds, and the measures taken to improve them.

7. The seventh part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Agriculture, dated January 3, 1862. It contains information about the agricultural industry of the State of California, and the progress of the cultivation and harvesting of the crops. The report also mentions the issue of the State's agricultural lands, and the measures taken to improve them.

8. The eighth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Commerce, dated January 3, 1862. It contains information about the commercial industry of the State of California, and the progress of the trade and shipping. The report also mentions the issue of the State's commercial ports, and the measures taken to improve them.

9. The ninth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Public Works, dated January 3, 1862. It contains information about the public works of the State of California, and the progress of the construction and maintenance of the roads and bridges. The report also mentions the issue of the State's public works funds, and the measures taken to improve them.

10. The tenth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Public Health, dated January 3, 1862. It contains information about the public health of the State of California, and the progress of the prevention and treatment of diseases. The report also mentions the issue of the State's public health funds, and the measures taken to improve them.