NOTE.—The original departmental returns (with memoranda) are annexed.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 17th October, 1894.

HUGH POLLEN,
Under-Secretary.

[Memoranda only printed in the form of notes to the above, each return being shown in the summary.—H.O.]

MEMORANDA.

AGRICULTURE: (1) The numbers shown in the above return include all persons who have performed casual work or temporary clerical work for the department in the years named.—JOHN D. RITCHIE, Secretary. 3/10/94.

AUDIT: (2) None of these persons were employed casually.—JAMES EDWARD FITZGERALD, Controller and Auditor-General.

COLONIAL SECRETARY : ⁽⁸⁾ Exclusive of clerical assistance to Registrar of Electors in preparing electoral rolls. The return includes all persons who have performed casual or temporary work during the above-named periods; but none of these persons have been employed continuously for any lengthened period except two.—HUGH POLLEN.

CUSTOMS : ⁽⁴⁾ Men are employed at the various ports for a few days or weeks at a time to act temporarily as lockers or tidewaiters. These are paid by the day. ⁽⁵⁾ Continuously employed.—W. T. GLASGOW, Secretary and Inspector. 19/10/94.

DEFENCE (STORE) : ⁽⁵⁾ The number shown in this return includes all persons who have performed casual or temporary clerical work for the department in the years named, but the person has not been employed continuously for any lengthened period.—A. HUME, Lieut.-Colonel, Under-Secretary for Defence. 5/10/94.

EDUCATION : ⁽⁷⁾ The numbers shown in this return include all persons who have performed casual or temporary clerical work for the department in the years named; but none of these persons have been employed continuously for any lengthened period. ⁽⁸⁾ For four days. ⁽⁹⁾ For seven weeks (February–March, 1891). ⁽¹⁰⁾ One throughout the year—not always the same person—in place of a permanent officer detached for other work; one—not always the same person—for special occasional work, lasting, on the whole, to ten months and sixteen days; and one from 19th February, 1894, acting as Private Secretary. ⁽¹¹⁾ Teachers of Native schools.—W. JAS. HABENS. 1/10/94.

GOVERNMENT INSURANCE : ⁽¹²⁾ The numbers shown in the above return include all persons who have performed casual or temporary clerical work for the Government Insurance Department in the years named; but none of these persons have been employed continuously for any lengthened periods, except five. Temporary cadets (additional)—1887–88, 2; 1890–91, 5; 1893–94, 5.—J. H. RICHARDSON, Government Insurance Commissioner.

NATIVE ; JUSTICE : ⁽¹³⁾ The numbers shown in the above return include all persons who have performed casual or temporary clerical work for the department in the years named; but none of these persons have been employed continuously for any lengthened period, except five in the Native Land Court.—C. J. A. HASELDEN, Under-Secretary.

LABOUR : ⁽¹⁴⁾ The numbers shown in above return include all persons who have performed casual or temporary clerical work for the department in the years named; two employed continuously for a lengthened period.—J. MACKAY, Acting Clerk (for Secretary). 24/9/94.

LAND- AND INCOME-TAX : ⁽¹⁵⁾ The numbers shown in the above return include all persons who have performed casual or temporary clerical work for the department in the years named; but none of these persons have been employed continuously for any lengthened period, except thirteen (four in 1887–88, and nine in 1893–94).—JOHN MCGOWAN, Commissioner of Taxes. 5/10/94.

LANDS AND SURVEY : ⁽¹⁶⁾ Thirty-two of the above temporary clerks were employed for twelve months or over, but some of these are not now employed; the return includes all persons who performed temporary work. ⁽¹⁷⁾ Several of these were employed for a short time, and are not now engaged.—H. J. KNOWLES, Chief Clerk. 5/10/94.

LUNACY AND CHARITABLE : ⁽¹⁸⁾ Has been employed continuously for more than two years. No persons have been employed for casual clerical work during the above periods.—D. MACGREGOR. 3/10/94.

MARINE : ⁽¹⁹⁾ Examiner of Masters and Mates, Auckland.—W. T. GLASGOW, Secretary.

MINES : ⁽²⁰⁾ The numbers shown in the above return include all persons who have performed casual or temporary clerical work for the department in the years named; but none of these persons have been employed continuously for any lengthened period, except two.—H. J. H. ELIOTT, Under-Secretary. 19/10/94.

POST AND TELEGRAPH : ⁽²¹⁾ These officers are (with the exception of those specially noted) now on the permanent staff of this department. There are no temporary clerks now employed. Females appointed as cadettes, grade £40 to £120, 9; females appointed as Telephone Exchange cadettes, grade £40 to £80, 23. Three not now in service. ⁽²²⁾ Seventy of these appointments are promotions from lower grades to grade of cadet.—W. GRAY, Secretary. 26/9/94.

PRINTING AND STATIONERY : ⁽²³⁾ The above includes all casual or temporary assistance in the clerical branch during the years named, neither of whom was employed continuously for any lengthened period. ⁽²⁴⁾ Total time employed, twenty-one weeks.—SAMUEL COSTALL. 27/9/94.

PUBLIC TRUST OFFICE : ⁽²⁵⁾ The numbers shown in the above return include all persons who have performed work for the Public Trust Office, but who were not permanent officers; all these, however, with one exception, have been employed not casually or temporarily, but for a considerable time.—J. K. WARBURTON, Public Trustee.

PUBLIC WORKS : ⁽²⁶⁾ All have been employed continuously for a lengthened period.—H. J. H. BLOW, Under-Secretary for Public Works. 16/10/94.
