At the Trinity College examination in the theory of music, held in June last, ten pupils passed—viz., one in intermediate honours, one intermediate pass, two junior honours, and six junior pass; and at the Trinity College practical examination in pianoforte-playing six pupils passed—viz., two senior passes, two junior passes, and two junior honours.

Athletics and swimming have received a proper amount of attention, the former under the direction of Miss Watt, the newly-appointed teacher, and the latter under Mr. Mowtell. The whole of the boarders are now able to swim.

I have, &c.,

GILBERT CARSON, Chairman.

The Hon, the Minister of Education, Wellington.

WANGANUI COLLEGIATE SCHOOL.

1. Report of the Trustees.

UNDER Mr. Empson's excellent management the school continues to maintain its high position, and to command the support of the public, there being always a full complement of boarders. The trustees have recently entered into an arrangement with Mr. Empson for a renewal of his present agreement for a period of five years from 1st January next.

G. H. BETHUNE, Secretary to the Trustees.
