(e) PROCEEDINGS TAKEN AGAINST DEFAULTERS AND OTHERS.

Particulars of cases in which proceedings have been taken in pursuance of section 69 of the Public Revenues Act are included in the Statement under paragraph (c) hereof.

The Audit Office is required by the above-mentioned section to take all such steps as it thinks fit to prosecute according to law all defaulters in respect of any public moneys or stores, but the section does not prevent prosecutions in like cases by persons other than the Audit Office. The statement under paragraph (c) includes, therefore, prosecutions which were instituted by the Departments concerned as well as by the Audit Office.

(f) SURCHARGES.

Section 69 of the Public Revenues Act, 1926, provides that the Controller and Auditor-General shall surcharge the person responsible wherever it appears to the Audit Office that public moneys or stores have been lost through the default, neglect, fraud, or error of any servant of the Crown.

In the past year it was found necessary to surcharge six officers, five of the surcharges being in respect of loss of cash,
