- (a) This represents a contribution of £1,000 sterling to the funds of the International Red Cross Committee for the current year in addition to £500 sterling which was paid for the second half of last year but did not come to charge in New Zealand until the 1947-48 financial year.
- (b) Australia and New Zealand shared the expenses of the conference held in Canberra during January-February, 1947, for the purpose of establishing a Regional Commission in the South Pacific.
- (c) The amount of £170 included in the main estimates represented a subsidy to the publication "World Affairs" for last year. The present grant is a contribution towards the expenses of the Association during the current year.
