

Habitual Criminals.—During the period from January, 1911, to December, 1947, 752 habitual criminals were released on licence on the recommendation of the Prisons Board. Of those so released, 59·3 per cent. were returned to prison either for committing further offences or for non-compliance with the conditions of probation. No further offences are recorded against the remaining 40·7 per cent.

Borstal Cases.—Since the coming into operation of the Prevention of Crime Act, 1924, 4,122 young persons have been detained under this Act, either by original commitments by the Court or by transference of youthful offenders from penal institutions or industrial schools. There have been 3,989 inmates released on the recommendation of the Board, 3,705 being on probation and 284 on the expiration of their sentence. Of the total number released, 2·80 per cent. have been returned to the institution for non-compliance with the conditions of release, 13·31 per cent. were recommitted for further offences whilst on probation, and 804, or approximately 20 per cent. of the total released, have been sentenced for offences committed after discharge or on expiry of their period of probation.
