

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	PAGE
LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL	3
SUMMARY	6
PART I—INTRODUCTION—
(1) National Pulp and Paper Scheme	6
(2) Independent Reports by Consultants	6
(3) Invitation to World Wood Pulp Conference	7
(4) Composition of Delegation	7
(5) Itinerary en route to Montreal	7
(6) Return Itinerary en route to New Zealand	7
PART II—ORGANIZATION AND CONDUCT OF CONFERENCE—
A. Description of Conference—
(1) General	8
(2) Proceedings	8
(3) Entertainment	8
B. Organization of Conference—
(1) Preparatory Work	9
(2) Administration	9
(3) Accommodation	9
(4) Steering Committee	9
(5) Composition	9
C. Proceedings of Conference—
(1) Procedure	10
(2) Agenda	10
(3) Statistical Work	10
PART III—REPORT OF THE PREPARATORY CONFERENCE ON WORLD PULP PROBLEMS—
Preamble	10
Recommendations	12
Conclusions	14
A. General Summary	14
B. Short-term Situation	15
C. Long-term Outlook—
I. General Remarks	16
II. Consumer Needs	17
III. Production and Requirements	18
IV. Raw Materials	22
V. World Trade in Wood-pulp	27
VI. Supply and Requirements by Grades	27
VII. Dissolving Pulp	27
PART IV—APPLICATION OF CONFERENCE CONCLUSIONS TO NEW ZEALAND—
(1) General	28
(2) World Wood-pulp Trade, 1949-55	28
(3) 1947-48 Investigations	29
(4) Wood Pulp Conference and Newsprint	29
(5) World Newsprint Supply	30
(6) New Zealand and Australian Demand for Newsprint	35
(7) World Newsprint Prices	39
(8) Cost Price of Newsprint in New Zealand	45
(9) Effects of General Currency Revaluations	46
(10) Economic Size of Newsprint Units	47
(11) Bearing of Conference Conclusions on World Sulphate Position	47
(12) General Aspects of Supply-Demand Position in Chemical Wood-pulp	49
(13) Effect of World War II and Post-war Developments on United States of America Sulphate Wood Pulp Position	55
(14) Effect of World War II and Post-war Developments on United States of America Sulphate Wood-pulp Trade	56
(15) Per Capita and Total Consumption Trends in the Use of Chemical Wood-pulp	58
(16) Possible Markets for Chemical Wood-pulp in New Zealand and Australia	60
(17) Long-term Price Trends in Sulphate Pulp	63
(18) Comparison Between Newsprint and Sulphate Pulp	69
(19) Forestry Conditions in Pulp-producing Countries and in New Zealand and Australia	69
(20) Conclusions and Recommendations of the Delegation	73