

“ 2. To consider the desirability of placing on the Agenda of an early session of the Conference the question of unemployment, with a view to achieving fuller and more effective use of manpower, both within each nation and internationally.

“ 3. To instruct the International Labour Office, in connection with its manpower programme—

“ (a) To continue to follow questions of employment and unemployment with the closest attention ;

“ (b) To co-operate with the United Nations and the Specialized Agencies directly concerned in the reporting and analysis of employment and unemployment and in the formulation of recommendations to combat unemployment.”

Approximate Cost of Paper.—Preparation, not given    printing (584 copies), £122.

---

By Authority: R. E. OWEN, Government Printer, Wellington.—1950

Price 1s. 6d.]