

1900.
NEW ZEALAND.

WAR IN SOUTH AFRICA:

CONGRATULATIONS OF NEW ZEALAND ON ANNEXATION OF THE TRANSVAAL.

Laid upon the Table of both Houses of the General Assembly by Command of His Excellency.

Premier's Office, Wellington, 6th September, 1900.

MEMORANDUM for His Excellency the GOVERNOR.

THE Premier presents his compliments to His Excellency the Governor, and begs to intimate that His Excellency's Advisers desire that he should, by cablegram, express to the Secretary of State New Zealand's satisfaction at the annexation of the Transvaal, thus confirming Lord Salisbury's declaration that when a settlement should be made it should be such a one as would prevent a shred of possibility of a recurrence of the troubles in the Transvaal.

His Excellency's Advisers also desire him to be good enough to express to the Secretary of State their hearty congratulations on the annexation, and their cordial thanks for the great services rendered by Field-Marshal Lord Roberts and his forces in South Africa, which have rendered the annexation possible, and brought about an event which will be ever a memorable one in history.

R. J. SEDDON.

(Cablegram.)

7th September, 1900.

My Government and the people of New Zealand desire to express high appreciation at the annexation of the Transvaal Republic, confirming the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs' declaration that when settlement was made it would be such as to prevent the possibility of the recurrence of troubles. They wish to express congratulations on the annexation, and appreciation of services of Lord Roberts and his forces.
