Promotions made amongst non-commissioned officers and troopers to non-commissioned officers in South Africa are not given, the men being given, with a few exceptions, the same rank as stated in Contingent Rolls. The six invalids above referred to are: Farrier Wilson, 2nd Contingent; Trooper McKinder, 3rd Contingent; Trooper Boyes, 6th Contingent; Sergeant Smith, 6th Contingent; Trooper Wooller, 6th Contingent; Trooper Martin, 6th Contingent.

The "details" from other corps are: W. Hutchison, of Dunedin, belonging to the Rhodesian Field Force; Corporal Humphrey of the 7th; Lieutenant Lundon of the 2nd; and Sergeant Fraser, also of the 2nd. As to the men belonging to other corps, they include Lieutenant V. O'Farrell, Derbyshire Regiment; Lieutenant Heather, of Kitchener's Fighting Scouts; Sergeants Skinner and Miller, and Corporal McLaren, of the South African Light Horse; Corporal Hyde, of Brabant's Horse; Trooper Corliss, of Thorneycroft's Mounted Infantry, and Trooper McDonald, who belongs to the Commander-in-Chief's bodyguard.

By Authority: JOHN MACKAY, Government Printer, Wellington—1901.
