

names. No proof was given that the same persons voted in both districts. Although a blunder, and only excusable on account of the difficulties mentioned in our general observations, there appears to be no ground for charging the Registrar with corruptly attempting to influence the result of the election by the act charged.

CHARGE No. 3 (GREY LYNN): Omitting to enrol a Large Number of Persons on the Grey Lynn Roll who put in their Application for Enrolment and against whom there was no Valid Objection.

This charge appears to be one upon which most stress is laid by the complainants, and every name on the list supplied was examined in detail. We therefore set out this list at length, and the result is shown as under :—
