Visited 24th April, 1907.—Twenty-five patients in Hospital, four being chronic cases and twelve old men. The kitchen is most unsuitable for the purpose, and the Trustees have wisely decided upon considerable improvements, and plans are being prepared. The Ziman Ward is a good one, and it seems a pity that it has to be used for chronic cases or old men. The Hospital is well kept. The Matron, Miss Gosling, is very well spoken of.
