RETURN showing Particulars of the ATTENDANCE and SEASON TICKETS issued in connection with the NEW ZEALAND INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION held at Christchurch 1906–7.

1. THE total number of persons who passed through the gates of the New Zealand International Exhibition, including 9,238 persons who attended the Seddon Memorial Concert held therein on Sunday, the 3rd March, was 1,967,632 (one million nine hundred and sixty-seven thousand six hundred and thirty-two).

2. The number who entered the Exhibition as paying visitors, not including season-ticket holders, was 983,621 (nine hundred and eighty-three thousand six hundred and twenty-one).

3. The number of season tickets sold and issued was 8,123 (eight thousand one hundred and twenty-three).

4. No record was kept of persons permitted to enter without payment, except the record at the season-ticket holders' gates, which showed a total admittance through these gates of 984,011, including exhibitors, their attendants, and all other persons having free passes. This gives an average admittance per season ticket of about five per week.
