

1908
NEW ZEALAND.

TRADE BETWEEN NEW ZEALAND AND THE WEST-COAST
PORTS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM

(REPORT BY MR. J. L. KELLY ON THE POSSIBILITIES OF).

Laid on the Table of the House of Representatives by Leave.

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page		Page
Introduction	2	Other articles of export,—
Bristol,—		Hemp	25
Trade, port facilities, &c. .. .	2	Timber	26
Meat and dairy-produce—opinions of merchants, &c. .. .	6	Wool	27
Cardiff,—		Bacon, poultry, fruit, &c. .. .	27
Trade, port facilities, &c. .. .	7	Hides, skins, and fat .. .	27
Meat and dairy-produce—opinions of merchants, &c. .. .	9	Grain and seeds	28
Liverpool,—		Growth of trade	28
Trade, port facilities, &c. .. .	11	Conclusions,—
Meat and dairy-produce—opinions of merchants, &c. .. .	12	The best west-coast markets .. .	30
Manchester,—		Obstacles to the expansion of trade .. .	32
Trade, port facilities, &c. .. .	15	How our trade may be increased .. .	32
Meat and dairy-produce—opinions of merchants, &c. .. .	19	(1.) By private effort .. .	32
Glasgow,—		(2.) By Government action .. .	34
Trade, population, &c. .. .	21	Establishing new branches of trade .. .	36
Meat and dairy-produce—opinions of merchants, &c. .. .	22	APPENDIX,—
London,—		Bristol as a port for distribution .. .	36
Descriptive and general .. .	24	Advantage of shipping goods from Manchester .. .	37
Meat and dairy-produce—opinions of merchants, &c. .. .	25	List of officials, importers, &c., interviewed .. .	38