Ħ.

Organization of the Staff of the Army.

Training Branch.

War training. Manœuvres.

Officers' education.

TABLE V.

LOCAL HEADQUARTERS SECTION OF THE IMPERIAL GENERAL STAFF.

CHIEF OF SECTION.

1. Instruction and training of the local Forces for war on lines laid down Staff organization-Staff rides-Record of officers suitable for staff employ. Staff Duties Branch. DIRECTOR OF TRAINING AND STAFF DUTIES. Local educational establishments. TRAINING BRANCH. Field Service Regulations, &c. Selection of officers of local Forces for study at Imperial Staff Colleges. Intercommunication Services. Organization of local Forces in accordance with State policy. Education of officers. Training manuals. Advice on local military policy to be pursued. Manœuvres. Supervision of training of troops. Plans for local defence. Education of officers. ್ಷ ಜ Preparation of plans for concentration and movements of Imperial contingents Mapping and reconnaissance of its own Dominion.

War Establishments, following Imperial Establishments as far as possible. Most suitable equipment to adopt, study of questions relating to. Application of principles laid down in Field Service Regulations. Information about its own Dominion and neighbouring States. based on information supplied by Imperial Headquarters. DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS. OPERATIONS BRANCH. Strategical distribution of the local Force. Preparation of plans for local defence. ರು ಬ

Norw.—In Commands and Districts, the staff to remain as at present constituted. Imperial General Staff Officers to be gradually appointed as they become available. There should be only one General Staff, i.e., the Imperial General Staff; it would seem undesirable to create a second form of General Staff which could only be temporary.

Approximate Cost of Paper.—Preparation (not given); printing (1,500 copies), £37 13s.