

VIEW OF THE CRAIGIEBURN MOUNTAINS.

The summits average about 6,000 ft. altitude. Shingle-slips extend from base to summit.

[L. Cockayne, photo.]

HEAP OF DEBRIS BROUGHT INTO RIVER PORTER BY A TORRENT FROM MOUNT TORLESSE.

On right the surface is getting fixed naturally by drought-resisting shrubs.

[L. Cockayne, photo.]