

Your Commissioners recommend that the land between Eltham and Opunake reserved for a railway should be either leased or sold to the adjoining owners or occupiers.

We have the honour to forward herewith—(1) Minutes of our proceedings; (2) copy of evidence tendered; (3) a map on which are indicated, inter alia, the railway routes recommended and the positions of dairy-factories.

We have the honour to be,

Your Excellency's most obedient servants,

R. W. HOLMES,
JAMES BURNETT,
G. H. BULLARD,
E. CLIFTON.
