PUBLIC SERVICE SUPERANNUATION BOARD

(NINTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE), WITH ACCOUNTS, FOR THE YEAR ENDED
31ST DECEMBER, 1916.Presented to Parliament pursuant to the Provisions of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Act, 1908.

REPORT.

THE Board has the honour to submit the following report upon the transactions in connection with the Public Service Superannuation Fund.

The Revenue Account, balance-sheet, and statements regarding membership and retiring and other allowances will be found appended.

The Board.—An extraordinary vacancy occurred during the year owing to the resignation of Mr. H. E. Combs, representing contributors belonging to the Post and Telegraph Department. Mr. E. J. L. Whiting was elected unopposed to fill the vacant seat,Contributors.—The number of new contributors who joined the scheme during the year, and other particulars, are contained in the following table:

Full information regarding contributors, including those who have retired from the Government service and are now on the fund will be found in the statements appended.

Retiring and other Allowances.—Pensions for £13,950 2s. per annum were granted during the year as follows: For age or length of service, £11,692 11s. per annum to sixty-seven members (sixty-two male and five female members); for medical unfitness for duty, £750 11s. to fourteen members (ten male and four female members); to widows and children of deceased members, £792 per annum to forty-four widows, and £715 per annum to fifty-five children.

The largest retiring-allowance granted during the year to a contributor was £629 9s. and the smallest £2 9s. per annum, while the average was £153 12s. 4d.

Those officers who retired during the year would have been entitled to receive the sum of £24,288 11s. 9d. accrued compensation under the Civil Service Act, 1866, had they not become participants in the benefits of the Superannuation Fund. The total amount saved to the Consolidated Fund in this manner since the initiation of the superannuation scheme has been £215,209 8s., which may fairly be set against the subsidies paid to the fund, amounting to £300,500.

Forty-one retiring-allowances were discontinued by death, and thirty-two for other causes—viz., nine widows remarried, twenty-one children reached the age of fourteen, and two allowances granted to officers were discontinued on their re-employment.

The annual amount payable at the close of the year was £88,391 18s., as shown in the statement attached.

| Income.—The total income for the year was made up as follows: | £ |
|---|----------|
| Members' ordinary contributions | 140,120 |
| Transferred from other funds | 481 |
| Contributions from Government | 48,000 |
| Fines, &c. | 200 |
| Interest | 42,814 |
| Total income for year | £231,115 |

Outgo.—The pensions paid to contributors who have retired and to dependants of deceased contributors during the year amounted to £84,791 10s. 7d.—viz., £77,088 15s. 6d. to members, and £7,702 15s. 1d. to widows and children.

Refunds of contributions to contributors who have left the service amounted to £13,919 9s. 5d., while the refunds under section 42 to personal representatives of deceased contributors amounted to £4,827 16s. 11d.

Four contributors who were retired elected to accept a refund of their contributions under section 38, amounting to £636 4s. 5d., in lieu of retiring-allowances. Refunds of contributions under section 32 (ee), owing to the death of contributors while in the Public Service and who were entitled to compensation from the Consolidated Fund, amounted to £1,478 18s. 11d. during the year.

Twenty contributors were transferred to other funds in accordance with the provisions of section 48 of the Amendment Act of 1908, and their contributions, amounting to £741 13s. 1d., were accordingly transferred to such other funds. The salaries of the staff (excluding that of the Secretary, paid out of the Consolidated Fund, as provided under section 25 of the Act) and other office expenses were £775 8s. 3d. and £409 12s. respectively. The Public Trustee's commission on interest collected amounted to £1,057 17s. 1d. Medical fees for reports under section 36 amounted to £48 6s. The travelling-expenses of the elected members of the Board amounted to £22 10s. 2d. The total outgo for the year was £110,500.

Accumulated Funds.—These amounted at the end of the year to £896,568 0s. 3d., being an increase of £120,615 0s. 4d. as compared with the previous year.

Balance-sheet.—On the 31st December the total assets of the fund, which include provision for the outstanding accounts, amounted to £904,638. The balance-sheet appended gives full particulars as to the assets and liabilities.

Investment of the Fund.—The Public Service Classification and Superannuation Amendment Act, 1915, which came into operation on 1st January, 1916, authorized the Board to invest the moneys of the fund in the following classes of security:—

Securities of the Government of New Zealand;

Debentures issued by local authorities;

First mortgage of freehold land to an amount not exceeding three-fifths of the estimated value of such land according to a valuation approved by the Board. Special valuations by the Valuation Department are used for this purpose;

Deposits in any bank of issue in New Zealand or in the Post Office Savings-bank;

Any other securities that may from time to time be authorized by the Governor-General in Council on the recommendation of the Board.

The Act also provides that all interest on the invested fund shall be collected by the Public Trustee, who is to receive for his services a commission not exceeding 2½ per cent. on the amount collected.

Securities representing the total amount of the Fund in the hands of the Public Trustee at the date when the Act came into force have been taken over by the Board. The selection of the securities transferred was made in terms of subsection (3) of section 4 of the Act, which provided that the securities to be taken over should be selected from all the common-fund investments of the Public Trust Office, the selection to be so made that a due proportion of the investments at each separate rate of interest should be taken over. The amounts of the several securities transferred to the Board by the Public Trustee, classified according to rate of interest, were as follows:—

| Debenture Securities. — | £ |
|--------------------------------|-----------------|
| 4 per cent. ... | 9,000 |
| 4½ per cent. ... | 37,350 |
| 5 per cent. ... | 50,195 |
| 5¼ per cent. ... | 11,423 |
| 5½ per cent. ... | 6,100 |
| | 114,068 |
| Mortgage Securities. — | £ |
| 4½ per cent. ... | 134,505 |
| 4¾ per cent. ... | 43,285 |
| 5 per cent. ... | 143,304 |
| 5½ per cent. ... | 330,597 |
| 6 per cent. ... | 3,875 |
| | 655,566 |
| Total | £769,634 |

As the result of the change in the method of investment, the rate of interest earned on the mean funds was £5 1s. 2d. per cent., compared with a return of £4 5s. 4d. for the previous year.

Progress of the Fund.—The following table illustrates the position of matters in relation to the fund since its inception:—

Legislation.—Section 17 of the War Legislation Amendment Act, 1916, provides that any person who was a contributor to the fund on 4th August, 1914, and who has voluntarily retired from the Public Service for the purpose of joining the New Zealand Expeditionary Force or any other portion of His Majesty's Forces for service beyond New Zealand in connection with the present war, and is subsequently reappointed to any position in the Service from which he so retired, may have the period between his retirement and reappointment counted as continuous for superannuation purposes if within twelve months from the date of his reappointment he repays to the fund the amount of the contributions refunded to him, together with the amount that would have been payable by him by way of contributions to the fund if he had been granted leave of absence for the period during which he was out of the Service. The Board may allow the payment to be made by instalments extending over a period not exceeding three years.
