

WORKERS' COMPENSATION AMENDMENT BILL.

THE Committee has the honour to report that considerable evidence has been tendered in respect to the Bill, especially the clauses dealing with increased medical and surgical allowance, and full wages-payment during the period of incapacity; also other phases arising out of the worker's compensation insurance. Wide differences of opinion were expressed as to the charges which would be entailed upon industry if the Bill was passed. The Committee is of the opinion, and respectfully recommends, that the Government should examine the whole matter, including the report from Ontario, and submit a report to Parliament next session. For the above reasons the Committee recommends that the Bill be not allowed to proceed.
