

intricate, but I rejoice to think that your achievement has justified the high expectations with which the Conference began, and that you have been able not only to conclude important practical agreements for the promotion of trade within the British Empire, but also to adopt principles to help its future development."

"I am confident that the results of your labours, and the spirit of co-operation and mutual helpfulness which has brought about their success, will be of real benefit to my peoples."

"I wish you all Godspeed, and a safe and happy journey homeward."

GEORGE R. I."

The Chairman: Is there any other business for the consideration of this Conference?

Then it becomes my pleasure to declare this Conference closed and to thank you for the opportunity it has afforded us all to know one another. It is my earnest hope and my prayer that you may have a safe journey home.
