CORRESPONDENCE

RELATIVE TO THE EMIGRATION OF PERSONS FROM VICTORIA INTO NEW ZEALAND, IN CONTINUATION OF
CORRESPONDENCE LAID ON THE TABLE ON THE 25TH JUNE, 1856.—(C. No. 8.)

(Laid on the table of the House, July 17th, 1856, and ordered to be printed.)

Surveyor-General's Office,
1st January, 1855.

SIR,—I do myself the honor of forwarding, for the information of his Excellency the Acting Governor, a copy of a letter which I have just received from Melbourne, relative to the introduction of a large number of emigrants; and would request to be informed if the Government would be prepared to make a special arrangement, similar to what was done in the case of the body of Highlanders who came to this country, so as to meet the exigencies therein detailed,

I have, &c.,

(Signed) CHAS. W. LIGAR,
Surveyor-General.

The Honorable
the Colonial Secretary.

ENCLOSURE.

No. 56, Chancery Lane, Melbourne,
15th December, 1854.

SIR,—Under the following rather peculiar circumstances, I take the liberty to solicit from you information, advice, and assistance regarding the settlement of thirty or forty families in New Zealand.

Although a man advanced in years, yet I am the youngest of a large family; our family emigrated to Canada thirty years ago, I alone took a different direction, and resided in the East Indies for twenty-five years. Three years ago, I went to see my people in Canada, and found them (including a few of our old tenantry) numbering nearly four hundred souls. They were scattered over a tract of country, nearly 30 miles along the banks of the river Ottawa; I found them in the enjoyment of rude abundance of all the necessities of life, but deprived of the means of education, and going back to savage life.

After mature consideration, I advised the whole to emigrate to Australia, and proposed such a kind of settlement as would enable them to have the means of education within the reach of all. As a further inducement, I agreed to resign a most lucrative appointment in India, and settle in Australia with all who would emigrate. All consented to leave; not a man would remain behind.

I then selected twelve young men and twelve young women to proceed to Melbourne, and prepare a home for the people as they would arrive. I started myself for India, remained a few
