

EIN PLAKAT,

das in verschiedenen Fabriken
und Geschäftsgebäuden in Neu-seeland kürzlich angeschlagen war.

(Die rechtsstehende Abbildung
dazu ist die Schöpfung eines unserer künstlerischen Beiräte)

FIRE WATCHING ACT. 1941.

Equipment to be carried by each Fire Watcher.

- A. 1 Respirator.
- B. 1 Belt to go round waist with 10 hooks attached to carry 7 full bags of sand and 4 buckets of water.
- C. 1 Axe in pouch of belt.
- D. 1 Stirrup pump to be carried
over left shoulder.
- E. 1 Ladder to be carried
over left shoulder.
- F. 1 Whistle to be carried in mouth.
- G. 1 Long handled shovel to be clutched under right arm.
- H. 1 Coil of rope to be carried under left arm.
- I. 2 Wet blankets to be slung round neck.
- J. 1 Tin hat with turned up brim to carry spare water and 1 spare tube to be carried in /pocket.
- K. 1 Dustbin lid to be attached to seat of trousers for smothering bombs by sitting on them.
- L. 1 box matches to ignite any incendiary bombs which fail to ignite.
- M. 1 Toilet roll to be used in emergency.

By order, The Poota Outa Fires Ministry.

(Signed) F.I.R.E. Watcha.

N.B.
The Fire Watchers Act,
1941, is not to be confused with the Acrobats Act, 1792.