The Forest and Bird Book of NATURE WALKS

by David Collingwood and E. V. Sale

The book by the Society, for the Society — the one you have been waiting for.

For more than 50 years members of Forest and Bird have been exploring New Zealand byways, discovering the beauty of our unique plant and bird life. This book is the result of their enthusiasm and knowledge, detailing more than 230 walks throughout the country. In each case there is information on access, length and time necessary, degree of difficulty and recommended clothing, along with a general description emphasising the natural features to look for. The text, maps and copious photographs are the work of Forest and Bird members.
