

Forest & Bird

One of the best you are holding in your hands

BUT membership in the Society will give you more than 4 beautiful issues of Forest and Bird magazine a year. Here are some further benefits:

- the satisfaction you are helping to protect New Zealand's natural heritage;
- special offers of gifts, books and products exclusive to the Society;
- the chance to visit and stay at any of the Society's bush reserves and lodges;
- new friends — we have 48,000 members and numbers are growing;
- the opportunity to join with our active branches on regular field trips, meetings and practical conservation projects;
- providing the Society with a means to help it maintain its 29 bush reserves throughout New Zealand.

AND what could be a more perfect gift than a gift subscription to Forest and Bird, entitling your family or friends to all the benefits and privileges of Society membership. Help conservation and solve your gift problems at a stroke! Post NOW.
