

Te kotuku-rerenga-tahi – “the rare white heron of a single flight.” In spring the white heron returns to Okarito, its only breeding area in New Zealand. This photograph is featured in the Society’s forthcoming South-West New Zealand World Heritage book.

Photo: P and J Morrin