

Go where no man has gone....

...far from over-crowded, over-exposed holiday spots like this.

If you've always wanted just that little bit more from a holiday, then you'll want to know all about Venturetreks' Special Interest programmes.

So called because they're special and interesting — with a unique emphasis on relaxation, exploration and enjoyment.

Leave the crowd behind and join our expert guides — specialists with a wealth of experience to share. They'll take you off the beaten track to uncover the mysteries of our natural world.

Tour with a small, personal group of like-minded people through distant (and not so distant) lands in search of knowledge, new experience and adventure.

Your next holiday — get a taste of the exotic, the unusual, or just plain interesting — with Venturetreks, New Zealand's most experienced adventure tour operator.

Our Special Interest Escorted Holidays for 1990 are:

- China (March)
- Nepal (April)
- Malaysia (May)
- Western Canada (June)

Forest and Bird still has 500 of the much acclaimed South West World Heritage book. Essays by Keri Hulme, Guy Salmon, Gerry McSweeney, Kevin Smith and Craig Potton describe why the area should be included under the banner of "World Heritage". Photographs by Craig Potton, Brian Brake, Ray Joyce and others show the region in all its majestic diversity. Buy direct from Forest and Bird's mail order service and save $8.00.
