

'The Living Forest'

New Zealand's unique native forests have developed in isolation for over 70 million years.

From the kauri giants of Northland to the ancient beech forests of Fiordland, the dramatic contrasts of these incredible forests are captured in this magnificent full colour publication.

Photography by Geoff Moon, John Cobb, written by John Cobb.

Hard bound, jacketed french fold size 235 X 280mm high quality art paper and more than 200 superb photographs make this a beautifully presented book that gives a true insight into our forest heritage.

Mailed direct to your address in a protective mailer. Due mid September.

"The Living Forest" is available at a special pre-publication price of $45.00.

All proceeds from this book will be used to further the work of the NZ Native Forests Restoration Trust.
