

R C BRUCE TRUST Applications for 1992 Grants

R C Bruce was a Scottish born New Zealander with a love for the forests and trees of New Zealand. When he died at Wanganui in 1917, he left money in trust from which grants could be made for research and special projects directly related to forests and afforestation. Applications are now invited from the public by the trustee, The New Zealand Guardian Trust Company Limited, for grants from the Trust. Information about the Trust and grants can be obtained by writing to:

The New Zealand Guardian Trust Company Limited
PO Box 628

Palmerston North (ph 06-358 4012)

Applications will close on Wednesday, 30 September 1992, and must be submitted on the approved application form.
