

Test your
Forest and Bird IQ.
Try this easy quiz!

- 1 Which area contains the largest no-take marine reserve in the world?
 - a Great Barrier Reef Marine Park (Queensland)
 - b Kermadec Islands Marine Reserve
 - c Looe Key National Marine Sanctuary (Florida)
 - d Skomar Marine Reserve (Wales)
- 2 Which country produces the most waste per head of population?
 - a USA
 - b Australia
 - c New Zealand
 - d China
- 3 How many native species of land snails and slugs does New Zealand have?
 - a under 20
 - b 20 to 100
 - c 100 to 500
 - d more than 500
- 4 What does membership of Forest and Bird give you?
 - a participation in New Zealand's largest and most active grass-roots conservation organisation.
 - b subscription to the country's most important magazine on environmental and conservation issues – four full-colour issues a year of Forest & Bird. Plus six issues of the topical Conservation News.
 - c a great gift for a friend or member of the family.
 - d a chance to join one of 56 branches and support local conservation initiatives.
 - e the right to stay at any of Forest and Bird's lodges throughout the country.
 - f all of the above.

Answers

1b,2c,3d,4f

see Membership Form in back of magazine