

Pull On Your Sandshoes For 4 Days in Paradise

Sling on a day pack, untuck your T-shirt and stride into our paradise . . . Gentle beech forests that tumble down to empty golden beaches and clear glistening bays full of sunshine and silence.

We'll take you there on a 4 day guided walk. We'll carry your bags, we'll cook your meals and we'll accommodate you in our comfortable refurbished and enlarged beach lodge.

There are also 2, 3 and 6 day options. Launch cruises, bush walks, fishing, swimming, canoeing, sailing, it's all here waiting and it's closer than you realise. Call us for all Abel Tasman National Park information on 03 528 7801. Or see your Travel Agent.

The Black Robin

Saving the World's Most Endangered Bird

by David Butler
and Don Merton

How can you save a bird from extinction when there are only five individuals, with just one breeding pair, left on a remote island in the Southern Ocean?

This beautifully illustrated story of how the Chatham Island black robin was saved will be a joy and inspiration to all who read it.
