Riccanton Bush: Putaringamotu

EDITED BY BRIAN MOLLOY

*The fascinating story of Christchurch's unique forest
Essential reading for all those with an interest in natural history, including those involved with similar forests elsewhere in New Zealand.*

Riccanton Bush is arguably the oldest protected natural area in New Zealand. This book brings together, for the first time, all that is known about its natural history and management, set in the broader context of the city of Christchurch. Twenty-three chapters, contributed by acknowledged experts, cover various aspects of the history, environment, plants, animals and management of this historically important forest remnant. Riccarton Bush: Putaringamotu is casebound 245 x 185 portrait, with full colour cover, 330 pages — 164 half-tones and line diagrams, 108 colour plates, and numerous tables and species lists. ISBN 0-473-02876-X
