

TE HOA MAORI, WITH GOOD NEWS FOR ALL.

"I haere mai hoki te Tama a te tangata ki te rapu ki te whakacra i te mea i ngaro." Ruka 18. 10.
 "For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost." Luke 19. 10.

NAMA 13.
 No. 13.

AKARANA, HERAE, 1889.
 AUCKLAND, JULY, 1889.

Registered as a Magazine.

"Rite tonu hoki ki te tarutaru nga kikokiko katoa; te kororia katoa ano hoki o te tangata, ano he puawai tarutaru. E maroke te tarutaru e ngahoro tona puawai: Ko te kupu ia a te Ariki, mau tonu ake ake." 1 Pita I. 24. 25.

"All flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: But the word of the Lord endureth for ever." 1 Peter I. 24. 25.

NGA NOHOANGA MAHA.

— 0 —
 "Ko wai ma kei reiru."

ANA KA whakaaro ro tatou ki nga nohoanga maha i nga waenua katoa, kotohu tonu tu whakaaro o toko ake ana, he "Kowai ma ra nga kaioho? Hohoro tonu ano te utu mui-he tano ra he wahine no tatou noi ano Mate atu he whakatupuranga, aya ake ano he whakatupuranga, mate atu ai, a hore rawa e hoki mai ano-a ka ara ake ano he whakaaro; "kua riro ratou ku when?" Mutec ake ake anake e whakaato mai te whiwhi pui te whiwhi momaes ranei o nga wairau katoa kua paharo atu, otira a ka whakaaro ake tatou kinga rau ki nga mano kua noho ki nga whare i konei, a kia haere atu ki ko, he mea poi kia huri te whakaaro ki nga nohoanga maha wahore nei e pirau e korero mai nei te Ariki a Ihu, a ka patu ai ano ki a tatou: "Ko te hunga ano ranei na ratou i noho euei whare whaka te no, nga tangata e noho mai nei i nga nohoanga i te rangi?" Kati, hei konei tatou ka whakamaharehara ki in o tatou speaks,

MANY MANSIONS.

WHO ARE THE INHABITANTS?

AS we think of the many mansions in every land and every clime, there is one thought that presents itself to our minds which finds an outlet in the question: "WHO ARE THE INHABITANTS?" And the answer is immediately given-- they are men and women like ourselves. Age after age has seen these men and women come upon the scene, and age after age had seen them depart, never more to return, and then another question arises: "To what place have they departed?" Eternity alone will disclose the weal or the woe of all departed spirits, but when we think of the hundreds and the thousands of souls who have gone in and out, and are still going in and out of those earthly and perishable mansions, we shall do well to contrast with them those other Mansions which are durable and imperishable, and of which the Lord Jesus speaks, and ask ourselves the question: