

Choosing Furnishings that go well together

REASON dictates that the house in which you are to spend the best part of your life should be made as pleasant and comfortable as your circumstances afford

Get the nicest furniture possible and select it with taste and discretion

By inspection of our model furnished rooms you will be able to note the combined effect of carpets and hangings, with upholsterings and furniture of different shades

Thus you are in a position to adapt any colour scheme to your particular requirements and choose furniture that will be in perfect harmony and good taste

Our expert advice will assist you
