WITH THE SPOON

"THE MALT THAT MAKETH THE MAN"

If you are not Strong

NOT all of us are endowed with that physical energy which enables us to scoff at colds and laugh at fatigue. . . . Those who are physically weak and children especially who have not very strong constitutions, need the most strengthening nourishment they can obtain. . . . In such cases, Extract of Malt has well established its medicinal value. Doctors in every country in the world now prescribe malt as the surest of all recuperative measures. . . Malt is indeed the concentration of vital nutriment. . . Its percentage of vitamins is extraordinarily high. . . The ability of a weakened system to assimilate it easily and transform it rapidly into new life-giving blood is another factor which makes malt of extreme importance to the human race.

Give Yourself More Power

Because of its purity, its nutritive value and high diastatic power, Perry's Real Scotch Extract of Malt is strongly recommended. In illness, its value is indisputable. . . In health, it adds to your reserve of strength enabling you to withstand fatigue longer. . It gives you more power to resist coughs, colds and disease, particularly when combined with pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil. For weak and growing children, a spoonful after meals is a body builder and nourisher as delicious to the child's palate as as it is beneficial to its health.

Perry's Real Scotch Extract of Malt

has done much to bring public opinion to its present realisation of the value of malt. . The fine rich crops of barley for which the East Coast of Scotland is famous the world over, are used exclusively in the making of Perry's. . . A thoroughly hygienic factory and an expert laboratory staff ensure its high quality standard being maintained. . Perry's Real Scotch Extract of Malt can also be obtained combined with pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil

You do not taste the Cod Liver Oil when taken in this form
