Tales of the Silver Greyhound: "WHAT! NO SPIES?"

Adventure and thrills in the service of England. Wearers of the Silver Greyhound, emblem of messengers of the British Foreign Office, are mostly ex-service men specially selected for their courage and resourcefulness. Important documents relating to international affairs are entrusted to them for safe delivery, and it frequently happens that they meet with determined opposition from international crooks and spies. Bringing their resourcefulness into play, the "Silver Greyhounds" manage to outwit their unscrupulous opponents.

8.30 "Thrills," a dramatic presentation

That breath-taking moment when disaster is averted, the spell of a lovely melody, a story of devotion, a verse, even a word—all are Thrills.

8.45 "John Halifax, Gentleman."

Dramatisation of the famous novel by Mrs. Craik, presented by George Edwards and Company. (Episode 46)

8. 0 CONCERT PROGRAMME

The 2YA String Orchestra, conducted by Leon de Mauny, "The Holberg Suite for String Orchestra" Grieg

Although a Norwegian by birth, Baron Ludvig Holberg (1684-1754) in whose honour this suite is named, did most of his important literary and dramatic work for Denmark, and is regarded as the real founder of Danish literature. When Holberg arrived in Denmark in 1717, Danish could hardly be called a written language at all. That one man raised the language to a place of front rank importance in the world's literature is an achievement for which we have far to seek if we would find a parallel. Grieg's Suite has no relation to Holberg except the composer's veneration, and the fact that it is written in an old-fashioned style.
