8.0 LIGHT ORCHESTRAL AND BALLAD CONCERT, 4YA Concert Orchestra, Overture "Plymouth Hoe" Ansell

John Ansell has specialised in bright and gay music which shows the hand of a fine craftsman. His choice of subjects is varied and characteristic, but whether he sets out to describe the merriment of children as in the "Children's Suite," ships and the sea as in "Plymouth Hoe," the ballet as in "Danses Miniature de Ballet," or hunting as in "Tally-ho," the composer always leaves us with a feeling that the world is a much happier place than we sometimes are led to believe.

HOW COLD IT IS, DEAR AUGUSTUS!

This coy Victorian miss might be laughed off our beaches nowadays, but she and "dear Augustus" had a lot of fun in their time, as you will see if you listen to the programme of Victorian entertainment, "The Gay 90's," to be presented from 2YC, Wellington, at 8.45 p.m. on Friday, October 13.
